Producer Summary: The Art of Wine series features iconic fine art images. Mondrian was searching for an aesthetic of universality, something abstract that was more truthful than reality itself. Through blocks of primary colour, he explored balanced composition; but how does one balance the impact of a large red square? Yet there is harmony in the work, and this harmony is the essence of Mondrian's visual philosophy.

Short Tasting Note: This deeply coloured Malbec is medium-bodied and balanced, with flavours of ripe blackberry, plum and smooth, supple tannins.

Long Tasting Note: This deeply coloured Malbec comes from grapes grown at high altitudes in Mendoza. On the palate it is medium-bodied and balanced, with intense flavours of ripe black cherry, blackberry and plum. Smooth, supple tannins are complemented by a long, spicy finish.
